

Preliminary Announcement

Partial List of Faculty,

Year of Great Decisions

ASIA IN MOTION

EUROPE IN MOTION

THE MIDDLE EAST IN MOTION

US—CHALLENGE AND RESPONSE

Northwest Institute of International Relations 21st annual session

A series of lectures,
panel and roundtable discussions

Day Sessions

Reed College Campus, June 12-16

Lincoln High Auditorium, Evenings

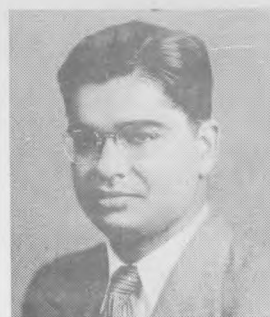

Sponsored by:

The World Affairs Council of Oregon,
Reed College, University of Oregon,
Portland Public Schools and The General
Extension Division of the Oregon State System of Higher Education.

IN-SERVICE and COLLEGE CREDITS IF DESIRED

Additional Information:

World Affairs Council of Oregon, BE 6161,
Ext. 41, 831 S. W. 6th Ave., Portland 4, Ore.

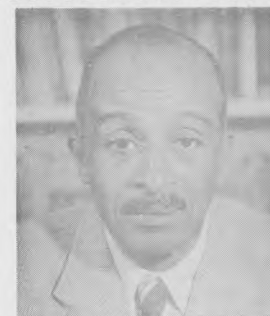

MR. J. K. ATAL
Minister at the Indian Embassy

MR. MORDECAI
REGINALD KIDRON
Deputy Permanent Representative of Israel to the United Nations

ROM LANDAU
Professor of Islamic and North African Affairs, American Academy of Asian Studies

SAUNDERS REDDING
Author — "An American in India" result of assignment for State Dept. in India.
Professor Hampton Institute

FREDERICK JOHN LEISHMAN, M.B.E.
First Secretary of the British Embassy, Washington

DR. FRANK TRAGER
Research Professor and Director, Burma Research
Project, N. Y. University —
Graduate School

Northwest Institute of International Relations

World Affairs Council of Oregon, Inc.

831 S.W. 6th Avenue
Portland 4, Oregon

Sec. 34-65 (e) P.L.&R.
U. S. POSTAGE PAID
Portland, Oregon
Permit No. 415

American Foreign Policy faces crucial decisions in every part of the world.

Help review and reassess the principles that will guide the United States in this

"YEAR OF GREAT DECISIONS"

with some of the leading thinkers in the world of diplomacy and international affairs.

PLEASE POST

Dr. Frank L. Griffin, Pres.
Reed College
Portland 2, Oregon